THOMAS A. COLEMAN
... New Recruiter

Recruiter Joins Former Shipmates

When Thomas A. Coleman, Boatswain Mate First Class, reported to the local Navy recruiting office for duty last week, he joined two of his former shipmates, Chief Gunner's Mate Vince B. Lawlor and Chief Gunner's Mate Marion D. Bradley.

The three recruiting officers served together aboard the Attack Transport USS Taladega in the Pacific during World War II, in the Korean conflict, and in the evacuation of the Viet Namses in Indo China during operation "Passage to Freedom."

Chief Lawlor, who has been the recruiter for this area for the past two years, will retire next month after 2 years service.

Persons wishing to enlist are invited to contact them at the recruiting office, 16422 South Vermont Ave.

Industrial Show Plans Halted

The Industrial Show scheduled as a part of the third annual Torrance Ranchero Days celebration, July 22-26, will not be held in 1959, it was announced today by the sponsoring Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Chairman James Becker stated that too many local firms had already planned exhibits in trade shows throughout the nation during July and would be unable to participate.

Becker said that plans will be started in the very near future for a giant industrial exhibit in 1960.
